THE EMPLOYMENT PROCESS

As a potential applicant for employment, you are about to participate in a series of events collectively called the employment process. Because the goal of the employment process is to obtain qualified candidates to fill City positions, examinations are generally administered to each applicant. These examinations are conducted in a variety of ways, yet they share a common purpose – to test applicants for knowledge, skills and abilities required to perform the duties and responsibilities of the job.

The employment process occurs in several states which are described below:

- ★ Application: Prospective employees must submit an application and other documents required as specified in the bulletin announcement by 3:00 p.m. on the final filing date. Final filing dates vary for different jobs and are listed on the front of each bulletin announcement. Separate applications must be submitted for each job title.
- ★ Oral Interview: Applicants who meet the qualifications standards on or before the posted final filing date are notified to participate in an Oral Interview (weighted 100%). Successful candidates will be placed on an eligibility list. Successful applicants will be scheduled for a Lieutenant's Interview.
- ★ Medical Examination: Certain positions may require a pre-employment medical examination, including laboratory testing, drug screening and/or psychological examination. These examinations will be administered by a City physician. Candidates are cautioned not to quit or give notice to present employers until the medical examinations if required, has been completed and passed.
- ★ The final portion of the selection process includes:
  - Thorough Background Investigation
  - Chief's Interview
- ★ Appointment: All new employees are required to sign various forms as related by City employment. At this time candidates are also fingerprinted prior to employment. All new employees hired by the City must verify identity and entitlement to work in the United States by providing documentation required by the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
- ★ Probationary Period: Employees serve a probationary period, ranging from 12 months to 18 months. If performance is not satisfactory, employee may be terminated without recourse during the probationary period.
